Annual Art Fair To Be Largest, Most Varied Yet

What promises to be the largest and most varied Art Fair ever held in Sierra Madre is opening on May 17 when the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library will proceed with that annual affair, now in its seventh year, in Memorial Park.

Continuing for two days, the outdoor Fair will be open Saturday and Sunday, May 17 and 18, from 9 a.m. to dusk each day. Admission is free.

Art in many forms from all over Southern California will be much in evidence with over 60 artists and craftsmen represented. Most all the work will be for sale, with a percentage of each sale going into a special fund for expansion of library facilities.

New this year is a special section of the Fair to be devoted to the exhibit of art of the city's young people age five to 17. This Youth Fair Art Exhibit will contain one piece of art for display only from each participant, giving the young artists an opportunity to exhibit in the Fair for the first time. The main part of the Fair has always been open to older exhibitors only.

Sunday afternoon, a drawing will be held for works of art donated by the following artists, all of whom are exhibiting at the Fair: Ruth Abernathy, watercolor; William Bockus,

Agreements & Options Completed; Commission and City Hold Decision

by R. Robert Evans

The City Planning Commission will receive their first application for the rezoning of certain properties at the Southeast corner of Sierra Madre Blvd. and Baldwin Avenue, that property now consisting of Roberts Market, parking lots, vacant lots and homes. The request was to change from Zone R-3 and R-P, to Commercial.

The request involves rezoning the west 50 feet of Lot 10 of the Central Tract, more commonly recognized as 58 and 60 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. from R-P to Commercial and also Lots 21 and west 20 feet of Lot 20 of the Central Tract, more commonly known as 29 and 37 Suffolk Avenue. Also involved in the request for zone change is an application for a variance to reduce the required number of parking spaces and also to relocate the City's parking lot which is centered within the proposed development.

The applicant further submitted a plot plan of the proposed development and involves a 23,200 square foot area for a super market, required to have 170 parking spaces. A bank is proposed to contain 6,300 square feet and 15 parking spaces. Also a complex for small shops covering an area of 6,800 square feet and requiring 29 parking spaces. This is a total of 214 parking spaces required by City Code, but the plot plans provides for only 121 and of this amount 39 are owned by the City which would reduce that provided by the developer to 82 which is 38 per cent of the requirement.

The plot plan as submitted shows that the parking spaces and area would be on the corner of Sierra Madre Blvd. and Baldwin, extending down the east line

Our New Mayor . . .

ROBERT C. (BUD) HARTMAN
... Our New Mayor

By law the General Law Cities must reorganize the Council at the last meeting in April of each year. They must choose a mayor who selects his councilmanic appointments for the year, and a Vice-Mayor must be chosen. By custom the Mayorship rotates among the elected Councilmen, generally on the basis of oldest in service. Although one may hold over and be mayor more than one term it is the five Councilmen who make the choice from those among themselves. Due to only three councilmen present at the last meeting in April the Mayor was chosen at the first meeting in May and will probably make his councilmanic appointments at the meeting of May 27.

OUR CITY CONTINUES TO LOSE BUSINESS

by R. Robert Evans

Although the State of California reported that business during the fourth quarter of 1968, which was the Christmas quarter and took in the months of October, November and December, had shown an increase of 11 per cent or an increase of over 1-Billion dollars, the little City of Sierra Madre kept slipping behind, and have consistently been doing this since the year 1964.

Business in Sierra Madre for the past seven years as reported by its own merchants to the State Board of Equalization disclosed in their reports the following: Fourth Quarter only, in Sierra Madre:

1962	—$1,281,000.00
1963	—$1,292,000.00
1964	—$1,419,000.00
1965	—$1,427,000.00
1966	—$1,395,000.00
1967	—$1,345,000.00
1968	—$1,333,000.00

The rise of 3.9 per cent in consumer price index during the December 1967-68 period should have indicated at least one-third expansion in sales. The fourth quarter of 1968 is only the third occasion in two decades that every class of business has increased from its year-earlier level. Similar records were made in the third quarter of 1968 and in the final quarter of 1969.

Los Angeles County as a whole had an increase of $355,757,000.00 or a percentage of 10.4 per cent, while Sierra Madre dropped $12,000.00 in taxable sales for a percentage drop of .09 per cent over 1967. While our

Know Your Town

As a public service the Sierra Madre News, in cooperation with the Sierra Madre Unit of the League of Women Voters will publish a bi-monthly column in this newspaper titled "KNOW YOUR TOWN." Because we feel a need for better communication between the city and the citizens we are taking this direct action starting Thursday, May 29.

Questions for this column will be submitted by our readers and will be researched and answered entirely by a panel of women who are members of the Sierra Madre Unit of the League of Women Voters and a representative from the Pasadena League of Women Voters. Questions relating to city government action, city administration, parks and recreation, zoning, planning commission, etc., will be answered. No questions involving politics or personalities will be considered.

Unlike the syndicated column ACTION LINE, this column will not attempt to do any problem solving. It will however furnish the needed information for the individual to effectively solve his own problem in question.

The title KNOW YOUR TOWN evolved from a recently revised study that the Sierra Madre Unit did on Sierra Madre, the city and its government. We feel that a non-partisan voters service project such as this will be an attempted effort to answer the needs of our citizens.

Send questions to "KNOW YOUR TOWN," BOX 674, SIERRA MADRE 91024.

I have found that I can adjust more easily to a new tax rate than I can to daylight savings. That little hour that I lost a couple of weeks ago is really causing me a lot of grief. It is really hard trying to go to bed while it is still daylight, but on the other hand, six hours of sleep after twelve hours of work is really not enough. Oh well, I know I will get used to it eventually, as I have been told, "hang by the neck long enough and you soon get used to it." You kinda take on the attitude of not caring any more.

Speaking about time . . . This time last year I hoped to be at this time this year where I now hope to be at this time next year . . . and I learned early in life "time waits for no man . . ." and looking in the mirror the other day, I am certain it is not waiting for me.

Read a story the other day that might be of interest to you . . . A young desperado approached a cashier in a San Diego supermarket and inadvertently drew a ripe banana instead of his revolver, and boldly proclaimed a stickup.

Thrown into a near panic when he discovered his mistake, the callow Clyde with the bonnie banana still managed to fumble out his real gun and split with $745 before the laughter died out . . . Believe it or not, 48 hours later they had no trace of the daffi bungling banana bandit.

Course, I also read in a Milwaukee paper where a Milwaukee homeowner's watch dog had the right to bite, he became so nervous after an encounter with a burglar that his owner took him to a vet to see what could be done about his state of mind (the dog's that is). The pooch's prescription was for tranquilizers.

And then along the same line a Missouri citizen was anything but tranquil after being shaken up in an auto accident. And even 120 days after a minor accident, he claimed that he was still too nervous to return to his job . . . racking up pool balls.

Then there comes the news from Coral Gables, Florida about a driver who plowed into a gate when he was distracted by a woman in the nude who was chasing a small boy down the street. A policeman standing on the corner nearby admitted that he didn't see the crash . . . Guess he must have been distracted.

Supervisors Hail Attack On Smut

President Nixon's aggressive, three-pronged attack on obscenity was commended recently by the Board of Supervisors on motion of Warren Dorn.

Dorn pointed out that the President's war on smut involves strong laws to control the mailing of obscene matter, particularly to those under 18.

"The President hopes to make it a federal crime to use the mails for exploitation of sex-through-mail advertising."

"He has proposed a law that would force mailers of offensive material to stop sending such unwanted matter. Also, this statute would further require that mailers of sex-oriented material place their names and addresses on envelopes," added Dorn.

On Dorn's motion, the county's legislative advocate in Washington, D.C., was instructed to represent the Board in support of the bills needed to carry out "this constructive, long-awaited federal control program."

The Veterans Administration receives more than 95 million pieces of mail annually from veterans and their dependents — more than the total of a city the size of Pittsburgh.

The plot plan indicates some type of wall or screening device to be located in that area to protect the properties on the South side of Suffolk.

Palm Springs Honeymoon For Signe Johnson and Thomas Lynch

MRS. JOHN PATRICK LYNCH
... nee Signe Ann Johnson

In a 1 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, May 10 at the Monastery Chapel, Miss Signe Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edwin Johnson of Portland, Oregon, became the bride of Mr. John Patrick Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anthony Lynch. The Rev. Thomas O'Malley officiated.

A full skirt and chapel train of plain organza were striking fashion notes to a bridal gown of Swiss Embroidered Organza, styled with a 'Basque Bodice' and three-quarter length sleeves. The deep ruffle on the sleeves was of the same embroidery as the bodice. The bride's silk illusion bouffant veil was held by a flower of silk illusion and organza and she carried a nosegay of white daisies, stephanotis and baby breath. The lovely blonde bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. John Thomas Schuler, III was matron of honor and wore a floor length gown of pink dotted swiss with bell sleeves. Inserts of Venice lace at the waist of the Empire styled gown and on the sleeves were design highlights. She carried a nosegay of hot pink daisies and baby breath. Bridal attendants, Camilla Mary Lynch, Dixie Cole, Karin Marie Lynch and Sue Ann McDonough wore the same style gown as the matron of honor, only they carried nosegays of light pink daisies and baby breath.

Miss Reanna Marie Hinds, wearing a dress of pink organza with bell sleeves of light pink dotted swiss, acted as flower girl.

Serving his brother as best man, was Thomas Anthony Lynch, III, while ushers were Frank Artukovich, Thomas James Johnson, David Lawrence Johnson and Michael Johnson.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Johnson chose a light blue, linen jacket-dress with matching hat and veil. The bridegroom's mother wore, a high neck, long sleeved, full skirted dress of aqua and white striped silk organza with aqua satin belt and matching buttons. A hat of matching aqua veiling completed the ensemble.

The reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, at 1125 Singing Wood Drive, immediately following the ceremony. Candace Williams presided over the guest book.

The former Miss Johnson attended U. S. Grant High School and Portland State College in Oregon and plans to continue her college studies. Mr. Lynch attended Don Bosco Technical High School, Pasadena City College and the University of Southern California.

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Lynch left for a honeymoon trip that included Palm Springs, San Diego and Mexico.

With Our TEENS

by Debbi Anderson and Tim Anderson

Tuesday, May 6, was our last meeting, and at that meeting we were able to accomplish more than we have at any other meeting in the past.

The first thing we did was introduce the new members: Jill Loggie, Alan Abraham, Doug Hyde, Kevin Paschal and Tim Jones. Next, we reorganized the committees. The chairman of the committee remained the same but the other members switched around. The committees are: Publicity, programs, activities, and constitution and by-laws. The committees will meet nights other than the night of the Teen Council meeting. We also set the qualifications for being a member of the Teen Council, which are, you must be at least 13 years old or in the 7th grade.

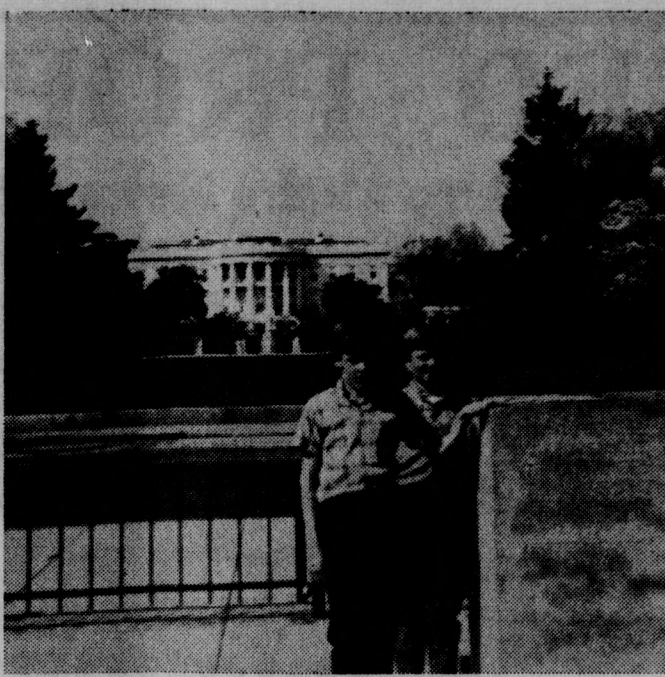

The letter which was received from Mrs. Kirkowitsch was read, in which she asked if the Teen Council could give a party for a teen group she knows of. Everyone thought it would be fun, but when we were matters which the activities committee will decide in the next two weeks.

It was also announced that the Police Department is inviting any teenager 14 years of age or older to ride with them at any time during their patrolling of the city and to observe what the Police Department does, etc. By calling and making an appointment and with parents' permission, the Police Department will be seeing you.

Dodgers are playing the New York Mets on June 14, and which is Sierra Madre Night at Dodger Stadium. It is hoped that many of the teens will attend. Tickets are $4, including the bus transportation to and from the game. Hope lots of you will come.

The meeting ended with slides of us at the car wash. It was really good.

We hope everyone will be at our next meeting on May 20th. If you have any ideas on what you would like to see planned for you this summer, write to me, Debbi. With Our Teens, c/o Sierra Madre News.

Alan and Mark Alcorn, sons of De and Pat Alcorn, are shown in front of The White House, the heart-beat of our nation. Homesick for home and friends, the Alcorn family is in Washington, D.C., while Mr. Alcorn is on an 8 months contract from Cal Tech working with the Department of Transportation. The Alcorns are enjoying the sights and history of the area, but will nevertheless be glad to return home to Sierra Madre in September just in time for Mark to join his friends in the 6th grade at Sierra Mesa and Alan to start Wilson Junior High.

BYRON HOPPER SAYS . .

THE JUNE BRIDE & GROOM . . .

THE JUNE GRADUATE

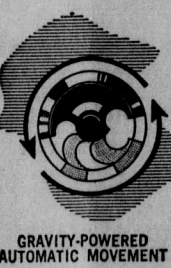

For expert advice on fine watches come to

BYRON HOPPER

A-Date-telling, self-winding Constellation chronometer, $165 to $1350

Choose an Omega and you may never need another watch for the rest of your life!

In the 115 years that Omega has been making fine watches, many thousands of proud owners have attested to the fact that even after decades of use, their Omegas still tell time faithfully. Unlike ordinary watches, every Omega is crafted of the finest materials with meticulous care, for a lifetime of proud possession.

From the designer's sketches and production blueprints to the final assembly, an Omega undergoes exactly 1497 separate inspections. One out of every four Omega employees is a quality-control supervisor. It takes four times longer to make an Omega than an ordinary watch. Omega precision is so great that it has won important accuracy awards at leading observatories and has been chosen to time many Olympic Games, where a difference of 1/10th of a second can mean a new world record.

You get maximum dependability and accuracy in every Omega. The balance wheel oscillates 1000 to 3000 times more per hour than ordinary watches. This is similar to automobile horse-power. A 300-horse-power engine cruises easily at 60 miles an hour. The same speed in a 150-horse-power engine can be a strain. The faster beat of the Omega movement counteracts the stress and pull of forceful wrist motions and jars and jolts which often affect the performance of the average watch.

Many Omega watches have self-winding movements, completely eliminating the daily nuisance of hand winding. While you wear it, the Omega automatic stores up its own winding power, thanks to the ingenious, gravity-powered 360° rotor which turns to and fro with everyday natural wrist motions . . . keeping the movement always at peak tension for greater accuracy. Just set it and forget it.

With an Omega date-telling calendar watch, you have the convenience of seeing the exact date as well as the exact second . . . in one glance. Every midnight, automatically, the next date-numeral moves into place. Only 5 times per year (in the months with less than 31 days) need you re-set the date manually. An Omega calendar-dial watch is a businessman's "must."

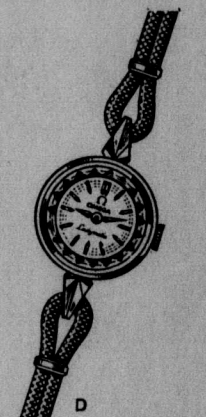

Other Omega Watches available with conventional movements $65 to over $10,000

14K gold. Distinctive, beveled oval case of classic design, 18K gold hour markers. $100.

Seamaster self-winding watches from $100. Models with date-telling dials. $125 to $625

Self-winding Ladymatic. Winds itself as you wear it. 14K white or yellow gold. $135

Distinctive dress watch in 14K white or yellow gold, for a discerning man. $135

WHY WE RECOMMEND OMEGA
Our expert watchmakers, who know the "inside" facts about thousands of timepieces, have the highest respect for Omega craftsmanship.

Newly-Formed Committee

MOTOREDE To Present Films On Drugs & Sex

Denying that recent State Board of Education guidelines would effectively protect California children from raw-sex instruction in the classroom, the newly-formed Foothill Committee of MOTOREDE (The Movement to Restore Decency) will present "The Innocents Defiled," a new color film on the subject, and "The Pied Pipers," about drug addiction among the youth, for interested parents at 8 p.m. Thursday, May 15, at Hinshaw's auditorium, 2nd floor, Duarte Road, and Baldwin Ave., Arcadia.

According to MOTOREDE, two points of the State Board's guidelines are deceiving if they are not put into perspective: 1) that the SIECUS (Sex Information and Education Council of the U.S.) program (or materials) is banned; 2) that sex education programs must be taught with moral and religious attitudes.

SIECUS newsletters and other printed materials clearly state that the organization has no "program," as such. Its activity is to promote the "idea" of in-depth sex instruction for children throughout their school years. SIECUS sends staff members and films all over the country, upon request, to advise and help local groups to establish such programs. SIECUS also acts as advisers "in consultation with" producers and publishers of sex materials. Many such audio visual aids and publications have already been sold to school systems throughout the country.

The local MOTOREDE committee also scores the possibility of presenting sex instruction with moral and religious attitudes as extremely naive, since repetition of even a simple prayer is no longer permitted in the classroom.

MOTOREDE's position regarding sex instruction is that it is the sole responsibility of parents who are best able to judge the emotional maturity of their own children at any given age so that the children will not be shocked by premature information nor become obsessed with sex by constant emphasis. Parents are also best able to present the delicate subject in the context of their own religious and

Neighbors

Many who have lived in Sierra Madre over the years have wondered about former residents who have moved on to other jobs and places. Former Sierra Madre School teacher Mrs. Zayda F. Leonard is one of those you may have wondered about. Mrs. Leonard retired in 1951 after having taught in Sierra Madre for 32 years. She is presently living in Fawnskin, Calif. For those of you unfamiliar with just where that is located, I am told it is in the Big Bear Area. Many children of the children Mrs. Leonard had in her earlier classes were also taught by her.

10-Weeks Wait Suggested by IRS

Ten weeks from the date a Federal income tax refund return is mailed, the taxpayer either has his check or a letter explaining why it is held up. F. S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue for Southern California, said today.

For this reason, a taxpayer who has not heard about his refund should wait ten weeks before writing IRS. By waiting this length of time, most taxpayers will find their inquiry is unnecessary, Mr. Schmidt said.

If it becomes necessary to write, the taxpayer should indicate where and when he filed his return and give his security number.

Millions of tax returns are handled every filing season at the Western Service Center in Ogden, Utah, which serves Southern California taxpayers. The volume of processing operations there makes it practically impossible for IRS to locate a particular return and to answer any question about it until processing is complete.

The Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Department announced that volunteers, groups and individuals are still needed to help with the building of the Bailey Canyon Trail. The trail will go from the canyon up to Jones peak and will tie in with the Mount Wilson Trail at Orchard Camp. The seven mile trail is presently being worked on by the Sierra Madre Mountaineers. The group has put in over 600 man hours of work on the trail. Groups or individuals interested in working on the trail should contact the Recreation Department at 355-7135.

This drop in taxable business should certainly be of prime interest to the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce as well as the City Council. The question is "Why isn't Sierra Madre forging ahead in business." I know the answer, do you?

Center Costs

Community Center was awarded at a price in the vicinity of $151,000, alternates have since been added, and with the accumulation of other additions, architectural services, anticipated furnishings, plans and so forth the City Administrator reported to the council the cost of the Community Center now stands at $193,450. This figure may show further advances as the project comes closer to completion in July.

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

SANDY VANCE lost his first start for Spokane but got little hitting support. After 14 innings he stood 0-1, had four whiffs and a 1.93 ERA.

DARRELL EVANS must have been a bit disappointed when sent down to Shreveport by the Atlanta Braves. On the other hand, he will be playing regular in the Texas League and the Braves thought enough of the ex-Muir, PCC star to obtain his contract from the Oakland Oaks.

JERRY TARKANIAN figures to have a near "super" team next year at Cal State Long Beach. Sam Robinson and company return virtually intact, George Trapp has enrolled and up from the frosh is Dwight Taylor, former Compton High ace, who averaged 33 points per game for the CSLB frosh.

I'M NOT A CLEVELAND fan but I'd like to see the Indians get untracked just to insure Alvin Dark's managerial job.

WATCH FOR CAL ST. L.A. to have a grid resurgence next year. Bob Brown, former Temple City All-CIFer, who played for the USC frosh a couple of years ago, will be at fullback. New coach Walt Thurmond will have Ken Boney from Santa Monica C.C. at QB with ex-All City halfback Charlie Moch in the backfield.

ORANGE COUNTY will have a track and field meet headed by international stars of the Ron Clarke and Ralph Doubell ilk. The meet is scheduled for El Modena Stadium, June 14, and will be covered nationally by CBS television.

RUMOR MILL... Will Butch van Breda Kolff depart the Forum scene? And is there a chance that Elgin Baylor would then be named head coach? And how would Wilt the Stilt like being coached by Elgin? And where would Butch coach? Would you believe in New York City, either the Nets or the Knicks.

Quotable QUOTE from Jack Kent Cooke back in August. "With Wilt Chamberlain plus Elgin and Jerry, we may never lose a game." Yep.

O. J. SIMPSON is one of my all-time favorite ball-players. However, I think the demands of his agent are absolutely ridiculous. A figure of $850,000 has been bandied about. Now who can blame owner Ralph Wilson for flatly refusing to go that high? Player salaries in all pro sports are ballooning completely out of sight. By the time a club pays salaries and all other expenses, how can they possibly show a profit at the end of the year?

BUDDY BLATTNER, former Angel announcer now at Kansas City, has a problem... His daughter, Barbara, gets married June 7 and he hasn't missed a game in 31 years... Couldn't she pick an open date?

GUESS WHO is the all-time top passer in NFL statistics? Johnny Unitas of course. He has gained 33,160 yards while completing 2,272 passes in 4,129 attempts. Now break out the slide rule and figure that down to mileage.

LOOK FOR THE PLAYERS to be named to the West and East rosters for the fourth annual San Gabriel Valley All-Star Game in the very near future.

I WONDER HOW MANY of our local athletes get involved with the rioting and dissension on the high school campuses in town? Betcha not many. Maybe coaches have more influence than classroom teachers. Just a thought.

Altadena Federal Has Art Display

For years, Altadena Federal Savings has featured the displays of local artists who have gained national and international recognition for the excellence of their work. Currently, the Association has on exhibit in the lobby of its head office at 2246 N. Lake, Altadena, the paintings of Lorraine Murphy, well-known California artist. The event will continue through May and June.

The exhibit consists primarily of seascapes of Laguna and Newport Harbor, with some renditions of foreign ports. Also on display is a painting of Eaton Canyon. All paintings are in oil and feature the Japanese knife technique.

Miss Murphy has exhibited in many "one-man" shows throughout Southern California. She also had her own traveling exhibit of clay sculpture, touring the United States for one year. Presently, her paintings are at the United Picture Frame Gallery in Pasadena and at the Altadena Country Club. The artist studied at Pasadena City College under the tutelage of Mildred Lapson Stevens, Robert Uecker, Van Young and James Carter Wright. In Laguna, she studied with the famous seascape artist, Earl Daniels. Miss Murphy is a member of the American Institute of Fine Arts and Los Artistas, Los Angeles, a select group of professional artists.

Sixty Years Ago:
April 30, 1909

In some manner the report has been started that Strain's camp on Mt. Wilson would not be opened this summer because it could not be made to pay. Both Strain's and Sturtevant's camp will be opened formally on June 1. Several tons of supplies have been received this week by the Mt. Wilson Hotel Company. These goods will be packed to the camps for the camp stores, being mostly canned goods which can be taken up from time to time and stored till the season opens.

Twycross has sold two lots in Fairview tract, J. R. Bransby to C. P. Kleinman of Minnesota and James Irving of Los Angeles. He has also rented the Minnie Clement cottage on Grand View to Dr. A. Wolf of Los Angeles.

The Library Association will hold a cooked food sale on Friday, May 8, the proceeds to go to the library.

With spring gardens just getting a fine start, complaints come in from all parts of town regarding chickens running at large. Every day Marshal Lehmer is called upon to rescue someone's garden from a flock of chickens or to notify the owner of the poultry that they are liable to arrest and fine for allowing chickens to run at large. There is a city ordinance against this and poultry owners may be prosecuted. Judging by the tone of remarks made by several irate gardeners recently, diplomatic relations in their neighborhoods are strained almost to the breaking point and certain poultry owners may be expected to be called to answer for the depredations of their chicks. Owners of rabbits of various breeds have been suffering their full share of troubles, too. The latest is William Walker, who had a couple of fine hares just about large enough for the table. A few night ago both hares were killed by dogs and now Mr. Walker has his gun loaded with a charge large enough to kill any dog that ever lived.

The Sierra Madre Golf Club is holding its Summer Tournament June 7, at Diamond Bar Golf Club with a buffet dinner to follow.

This is another mixed two-some affair with the winner determined by adding the combined scores and deducting the handicaps.

From the

FIRE SIDE

By One of the Boys

Talk about "trigger happy" firemen, well the Sierra Madre Volunteers have 'em, and in most any category that you might mention. Just shows how nervous the renegades become when fire danger gets closer and closer. Right now Fire Chief Charles Brown is considering very strongly of putting a few dollars in the 1969-70 budget for tranquilizers. Of course when you get a department up to 25 to 30 men you are bound to gather in a few "odd balls" here and there.

— SMVFD —

Take the newly appointed Engineer Evans, he is about as "fire happy" as anyone we know, and his sidekick Reservist Maurer is almost as bad. Take the two of them together and you certainly have a "case in fact." In fact they are so bad that other people have to turn their backs when they light cigarettes for fear of starting a Code 3 run.

— SMVFD —
Monday afternoon, May 5 is a very good example of what we mean. . . . Everything was fairly peaceful around the city, our police were on their usual patrol, when Sgt. Samory came upon a mattress burning at 476 Sturtevant Drive, and said over the police radio to the dispatcher, "I have a mattress afire at 476 Sturtevant. . . . Fire is the magic word, Evans and Maurer waited to hear no more, they were off like a shot.

— SMVFD —

Arriving at the station, Maurer hung the sign, Evans raised the door, and they had only one thought in mind. . . . Just at that point the radio Plecton began to beep, beep, beep, as Engineer Evans turned on the truck the beep, beep, was coming over the radio. . . . Here will be a real fast run was the thought. . . . Siren on, red lights lit. . . . Away they went. . . . They were half way there when the radio stopped so that they could notify all that they were 10-8 and on the way.

— SMVFD —

They picked up the red Fire Prevention Truck on the way, he had red lights on and siren blasting, and so did a police patrol car just a block in the rear. . . . Everything was working smoothly. . . . Arriving at the place of the burning mattress, Sgt. Samory was there, he had just called upon one of the local natives to get some water and they came rushing out with a glass of water. . . . When 424 came around the corner, Sgt. Samory's eyes were as big as saucers. . . . He got so excited that he drank the glass of water.

— SMVFD —

Well, the mattress was there, it was burning, so Evans and Maurer put out the fire, after things kinda quieted down, Maurer went over to Evans and whispered. . . . "Where is the rest of the firefighters?" . . . And about that time a very weak, disgusted voice came over the radio. . . . "424 where are you?" . . . Well, it was just about that time when both Engineer Evans and Reservist Maurer came to the full realization that they had answered a "Fire Prevention Plecton Signal" . . . and guess that is why Sgt. Samory was so wide-eyed and drank the water. . . . Calling for Fire Prevention and having Engine 424 roll around the corner.

— SMVFD —

Now, all of us will have to give a little credit to Evans and Maurer. . . . There was definitely a fire, and they did put out the fire. They didn't know it, but the dispatcher tried to reach Inspector Burleson four times, and called Fire Marshal Ludden twice, and then gave up in disgust when she realized that 424 was on the way.

— SMVFD —

Someone asked me where Inspector Burleson was, incidentally he is Engineer Evans' crew Captain. The answer soon came back, Inspector Burleson was in Roberts Market making a pur-

New Anti-Narcotics Book 'Darkness On Doorstep'

A revised edition of the County's widely-accepted booklet on the evils of narcotics and dangerous drugs has just been released, Supervisor Warren Dorn announced.

"This outstanding revised issue of 'Darkness On Your Doorstep' is a must for every parent and youngster throughout the county.

"It pulls no punches in outlining the horrifying danger of using illegal drugs," said Dorn.

The booklet, published by the Board of Supervisors in cooperation with various county agencies, including the Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Commission, shockingly portrays the harmful and sometimes deadly effects of narcotics.

"Juvenile drug arrests in the January-June period of 1967 rose to 5,735 as compared with 2,146 in the same period of 1966," said Dorn in urging parents to obtain copies of the booklet.

"Currently, state mental hospitals have great difficulty in treating psychotics who have become so because of combined use of amphetamines and heroin. Most are college students and young people, and psychiatrists cannot treat these cases because the psychosis is caused by drugs and not psychological factors," said Dorn.

One of the most common traits of above psychotics is suicidal tendencies, he added.

mission, said the new edition "brings up to date the problem of drug abuse. For example, there is now scientific evidence that actual brain damage can occur through the use of marijuana and LSD."

The first edition was prepared by the Valleywide Narcotics Committee, San Fernando Valley Coordinating Councils. The new booklet was edited by Dorothy Gildersleeve and the Department of Community Services.

Copies are available through the Department of Community Services; Narcotics Information Service, 220 N. Broadway, Room 701, Los Angeles.

Jerry Ross probably thinks the best present he received for his second birthday was his baby sister, who arrived in this troubled world on April 30. His birthday party, on May 6, complete with ice cream, cake and lots of toys was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waalkes and Debbie, Marcia, Jeff, Paul and Susie of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fox and Stephanie of San Gabriel; Miss Debbie Knock of Arcadia; Jerry's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ross of Redlands; and his grandmother from Fort Worth, Texas, Mrs. G. A. Baldwin. Jerry's parents David and Paula Ross naturally were present. Their godchild, little Stephanie Fox also celebrated a birthday on the same day and shared in the occasion. Stephanie was three. Sorry to say, Jerry's newest possession, sister Laura Elaine, slept through the party! Happy Birthday Jerry, and many more!

Mr. and Mrs. Louis (Mary) Hoffman's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kelley are on a European vacation. They left April 18 and by the time they return from Paris on May 22, they will have visited London, Rotterdam, Luxembourg, Austria, Switzerland, Rome, and Florence. Doesn't that make you want to go somewhere too? — Other than the grocery store, that is.

Baseball fans in Sierra Madre are in sack cloth and ashes this week, for the old baseball diamond is no more. The local ball "park" blossomed as a rose last fall, when a few local enthusiasts promoted a movement to raise funds to build a backstop, grandstand and buy suits for a dozen ball players. Mr. Yerxa it is said, believes the presence of the ball field hampers the selling value of the tract, and consequently refused permission for such continued use.

On the front page: "Greetings from the New

Sierra Madre need have no fear of a water shortage even though the population increase from one-third to one-half its present size for the new storage reservoir at the head of Grove Street will practically double the present water storage capacity of Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Viola Ann Tuttle, Sierra Madre's oldest resident, died Sunday in a Los Angeles Hospital. She was 104 years old last March 28.

A mass protest was presented to the City Council Tuesday night regarding plans for a Catholic girls' high school in the 13-acre estate of the Sisters of St. Francis, 675 W. Highland.

The cover on the April issue of Better Homes and Gardens features former Wistaria Queen (1949) Jackie Thurston — now Mrs. James Belknap of Laguna Beach. Jackie, daughter of Virginia Robertson of North Lima, is shown on the cover with two of her children Bonnie seven, and Bert, four. Jackie also modeled for this year's Girl Scout calendar — on the February page.

Nutrition Society Closes Its Year

The Pasadena Chapter of the American Nutrition Society will bring to a close an active year of programming and workshops with the presentation of its annual banquet May 27, at 7 p.m., in the Pasadena City College student dining hall. Guest speaker Adelle Davis, internationally known consultant, author and lecturer, is considered one of the nation's most highly regarded nutritionists.

Due to capacity attendance in previous years, and the widespread popularity of the speaker, it is suggested that members and guests of the American Nutrition Society make early reservations by telephoning 790-5672, 797-2069, 797-4578, or 355-8107.

Shirley Zaiss, daughter of Walter and Marilyn Zaiss observed her eighth birthday on April 26 with a party attended by some of her school friends. Maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Hodgkins of Sierra Madre were also on hand to sing "Happy Birthday."

couple of hours and make a visit to Memorial Park. I am sure it will be well worth your time.

— CT —
We are very happy for Father O'Malley, St. Rita's Church is now open. The first estimate on the opening of the church was for Christmas 1968, then Easter. Heavy January and February rains, of course, held back construction, as did a thousand and one other things. Congratulations to Father O'Malley in his new surroundings.

— CT —
I hear that we may soon have another increase in government doesn't watch Postal rates If the government doesn't watch out it's liable to price itself right out of the postal business Before long it will be cheaper for business firms to use the telephone, many of them are now delivering their billings and checks by foot while on the way for coffee.

— CT —
Of course, I find that there is only one thing left that will give me more for my money than it did 10 years ago The penny scale at the Royal Drug Store. Ten years ago it gave me 186 pounds, today it is something around 250 A nice healthy increase.

— CT —
Some people think, after reading this column that I should go and see a psychiatrist; my wife has thought that for years, but really there isn't anything wrong with me Take for instance the story about the little old lady that did seek the advice of a psychiatrist

— CT —
This sad, quiet, big-eyed little lady sat in the psychiatrist's office. The good doctor questioned her gently as to why her family wanted her locked up. "Now, tell me," he said "just what is your trouble?"

— CT —
"It's just that . . . well, it is just that I'm very fond of pancakes, doctor." "Is that all? Why, I'm fond of pancakes myself." "Oh, doctor, really?" she thrilled, clasping her hands together with joy. "You must come over to our house . . . I've got trunks and trunks full of them!" . . . and I see nothing wrong with having a couple of trunks of pancakes in case of an emergency.

— CT —
Just like the woman motorist who was trying to navigate a traffic jam. She rammed the car in front of her, then tried to back up and knocked down a pedestrian. Then she tried to move over to the curb and ran into a hydrant. A policeman came up. "Okay, lady, okay, let's see your driver's license." . . . Whereupon the lady remarked . . . "Don't be silly, who in the world would give me a license?" . . . A policeman's job is tedious.

— CT —
So we leave you this week with the following thought "While we often grumble because we don't have what we want, we should be very thankful that oftentimes we don't get what we deserve . . . I hope, I hope, I hope."

Fire Side

chase of hamburger for the family dinner. He was standing in line as the fire happy twins went by . . . The checker, a little concerned asked the Inspector, "Doesn't the fire engine going by disturb you a little?" He said it did. Later he admitted that he was the one that said, "424, where are you."

— SMVFD —
The next question was where was Fire Marshal Ludden? Well, he was having coffee with a visiting Firefighter from Pasadena, just upstairs over the engines . . . He took out like a bird heading south for the winter; left his guest at the station, who was trying to be a good visiting firefighter and wash out his cup before he made a move . . .

He showed up at the scene of the fire by other transportation . . . So Fire Marshal Ludden was sucked down the drain; he didn't listen either.

— SMVFD —
At the Saturday fire, one of the new Firefighters, who has just passed his probation, decided he didn't like the way roll was taken, nor did he particularly like the way certain appointed personnel investigated fires, so he took over. Then again there is a certain S & R man who wants to be a Firefighter without going through the procedures . . . Now, as Chief Charles Brown says . . . Keep cool these things will all be taken care of in time. And all I can say is, "I sure hope so, before the hot summer months get here, or we may have fire engines coming and going all hours of the day."

It was a foursome to Hawaii for a marvelous 10 day 'away from it all' vacation. Also, a sort of 18th wedding anniversary celebration for Frank and Roberta Ross. Other Sierra Madre couple completing the foursome was William and Dorothy Hoback. Dorothy was the only one of the four who had been to the islands before. Paradise visited were Oahu, Kauai and Hawaii. Needless to say, it's hard to get back into the swing of ordinary, everyday living after a vacation like that . . . right? Incidentally, happy anniversary to you, Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

You and Your Neighbors

Glenn and Wilma Barnes just returned from their first trip to Hawaii . . . and what a wonderful time they had. For the first twelve days home base was the Hilton Lagoon Apartments and after that it was on to the other Islands. Seems like everywhere they went they either met old friends or people who had previously lived in our 'area,' now were living there, who were anxious to visit with them.

The golf pro, on Maui was a former Altadenean. The Barnes also attended the dedication of the new antenna for the High Capacity Earth Station on top of Mt. Paumotu — about 45 miles north of Honolulu. A very powerful station, it will be used for talking with space. Lots of important and interesting people attended, including the Governor of Hawaii. While the Islands are growing by leaps and bounds, most of the charms is still there — like at the Kona Inn on the island of Hilo — Even before you register, a lovely Hawaiian girls serves you delicious punch and an orchid is placed on your pillow every night when the bed is turned down for you. All in all, the Barnes had a marvelous time, but when they returned home they had to admit that there is lots of beauty right here in 'our own backyard,' Sierra Madre.

A family birthday dinner party was held on Sunday, May 4 for Meredith Phillips, daughter of Draper and Janet Phillips, who became 15 years of age on that date. Her sister, Patricia left her studies at Pitzer College long enough to join in the birthday celebration and also brought along her roommate. Dropping by later to add their best wishes to those already received by the "birthday girl," were a few neighbors and close friends.

and set the Engineer's estimate at $51,246.10. To be acceptable the Engineer's estimate should come within a 10 per cent variation, of the six companies submitting bids, the lowest bidder was for the amount of $82,562.25. The highest bidder submitting was for $110,131.90. The Council promptly rejected any and all bids, and instructed the staff to issue new bids, using alternate pipe and construction.

VIP New Service

sightseeing operations, railroads, airlines, steamship lines and other vacation points. Further by the use of this new service their commercial clients in the United States, South America and Europe are as close as their next door neighbor.

Because of VIP's possession of this new TELEX service, now Sierra Madre is listed in the International directory of TELEX and gives the city a direct line to all points. The TELEX number for VIP is just like a telephone number, 67-5483 and the identification number for the world for printed messages is VIP TRVL SIMD. Each message received by the local offices comes printed in one original for verification of the agency and a carbon copy going to the traveler that he may place in his travel portfolio.

The procedure is so simple that a child can operate it. Messages are sent out and in matter of minutes the answer is back. Of course messages can come into the office at anytime during any 24-hour day. There is no need for an attendant to be in the office to receive the message, which is printed and can be seen immediately upon arrival of any person in the office. This of course eliminates waiting for mail, phone calls or telegrams for verification of desired vacation or travel locations.

Horst is indeed proud of this new accomplishment, he is proud to give his clients this fast, convenient type of service. You should drop in and see how it works on a reservation for you. It is indeed marvelous.

Guards, $30,000

given to employ the services of off-duty members of the Pasadena Police Department and the auxiliary personnel of the Sierra Madre Police Department, if any when it is deemed necessary to use these officers in lieu of the guards furnished by the contractor, or to augment his services.

"The cost of the aforesaid services will average approximately $5 per hour. The maximum expenditure will be $30,000. No funds for this purpose were included in the 1968-69 budget. Monies for this purpose must be transferred from undistributed reserve to a current account.

"It is recommended further that the president and assistant secretary be authorized to sign an agreement with the contractor and that Edgar C. Egly, as assistant superintendent for business sign all documents necessary to obtain the aforesaid services, of the police officers."

These recommendations were passed by the Board of Education.

Neighbors

Knowing that you are going to spend the entire summer on your own ranch away from the hustle-bustle, rat-race of today's living certainly must give you a glorious outlook as you clean house, strip floors, fight the traffic and such. This will be the second summer that Mr. and Mrs. Harlan (Anne) Pedersen will spend on their ranch in Tehachapi. The three girls, Barbara (12), Lisa (11) and Janet (9) along with their mother will tend garden, relax, swim, gather eggs, do creative art work, strum a guitar from time to time and whatever else one does while living in such a relaxed, healthy atmosphere. Even though Mr. Pedersen will be able to join his family on weekends only, he is looking forward to a wonderful summer too. All are hopeful that the seed they planted some two months ago will become fine for the grazing of their beef cattle. They probably will have a horse to ride around by the time summer arrives. Other animals on the 'spread' adding pastoral scene: some sheep, pigs (built in garbage disposal) and laying hens. Now doesn't that sound like 'the only way' to really spend the summer...?

The Veterans Administration will offer financial help for veterans to finish high school.

MONEY we spend away from home does not help pay taxes in our community, and it's obvious that come next year somebody must make up the difference...

Guess Who...

About one-third of every dollar we spend goes to help pay the RUNNING expenses — and the GROWING expenses — of some American community... OUR community, if we spend that dollar at home...SOMEBODY ELSE'S community, if we spend the dollar where HE lives.

When a dollar leaves home that could just as well OR BETTER have been spent here...the part of it that helps support the community goes along, too, of course. And our own community tax pot has less money in it.

But schools and roads and streets, churches and local charities, police and fire protection, ...all of the normal necessities and conveniences of community life... go on costing about the same.

So... with community expenses the same, and community income LESS... who makes up the difference? WE DO. You might say it's sort of like paying taxes TWICE... once for the other fellow... and then going down in our pockets to pay them again... for ourselves.

Supervisors and Mayors Proclaim This Police Week

Ernest E. Debs, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors and Supervisors Frank G. Bonelli (1st District); Kenneth Hahn (2nd District); Burton W. Chase (4th District); and Warren M. Dorn (5th District); and in conjunction with City Mayors from each district, in cooperation with the Law Enforcement and Community Recognition Association of Los Angeles County, in special ceremonies recently proclaimed Police Week as May 11-17 throughout the County of Los Angeles.

On hand for the proclamation ceremony were police chiefs: Dale J. Adams (Baldwin Park); J. M. Kimble (Beverly Hills); Rex R. Andrews (Burbank); Ivan A. Robinson (Downey); Duane Baker (Glendale); William J. Mooney (Long Beach); E. F. Holladay (Monterey Park); Walter R. Koenig (Torrance); and Sheriff's Lennox Station Commander Captain John Peacock, and Temple Station Commander Robert Trask.

Also in attendance were Police Week hostesses Airline Stewardesses Nancy Sailer and Gerrie Grant (Western Airlines); Brian Bell, executive with the Hi-Shear Corporation; and Thomas C. Letcher, LECRA president.

Bell, speaking for the Hi-Shear Corporation and a member of the Police Week Steering Committee, stated "The Police Week Proclamation has been printed on scrolls and will be on display in each of the county's city halls beginning on May 7th."

The Third Annual Police Week Recognition Dinner in the Hollywood Palladium May 14, will highlight the county-city Police Week observances, and will salute our police officers in the Sheriff's Department and 47 police departments.

Without automatic data processing, the Veterans Administration, which serves nearly half of the nation's population, would find it impossible to transact its business as speedily as it does.

Annals of Sierra Madre Reference Copy In Library

By D. Koenig

During this two years (1969-70) California Bi-Centennial Celebration commemorating the first permanent settlement in California by Portola-Serra, a number of requests for the "Annals of Early Sierra Madre" have been received by the president of the Sierra Madre Historical Society.

This historic volume is out of print; however, there is a reference copy for use in the Sierra Madre Library. It is hoped that an additional copy will sometime be donated to the reference shelf by a dedicated Sierra Madren who was a fortunate first purchaser.

The Sierra Madre Historical Society published the "Annals of Early Sierra Madre" in 1950. It was a collection of papers which presented the factual history of the community as written by those who took part in the events recorded. The papers were first prepared at various times for presentation orally before meetings of the Historical Society or the Woman's Club. An editorial committee with a keen historical sense gathered and organized them as separate chapters within the book. There are twenty unique chapters plus an epilogue, followed by biographic sketches of prominent members of some of the first 17 founding families. Each chapter is authored individually and retains a charm that reflects the personality of the writer.

The Sierra Madre Historical Society owns and treasures the original plates for this 1950 publication. However, this group is planning to develop a second publication of equal interest at a future date.

A combination celebration for Mother's Day and a birthday occurred at Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Marjorie) Peterson's home last Sunday, May 11. Their son-in-law Dr. Glen McCormick's birthday happened to fall on Mother's Day this year so he shared honors with his mother-in-law, Marjorie, his grandmother-in-law, Mrs. Orelia Henderson and his wife, Muriel. The McCormick's three children — 8 year old David, 6 year old Vickie and little Kathy, who was 1 year old in April — was also present. A nice day for all!

What Will Nixon Do?

The recent decision by a majority of United States Supreme Court Justices outlawing the one year residence requirements of several states as a condition of receiving public welfare funds illustrates once again the political lag between the High Court and the American public that every so often contributes to grave crises in American history.

The fact that Supreme Court Justices are appointed for life periodically creates a situation where nine men, frozen in attitudes of the past, become far out of touch with the sentiments of the people.

The most dramatic example of this political lag was the Court's Dred Scott decision, which, contrary to the growing anti-slavery beliefs of most Americans, held that the Congress could not legislate against slavery in federal territories. Many historians hold that decision substantially responsible for the outbreak a few years later of the Civil War.

Another notable example was the series of Supreme Court decisions, during the early days of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration, declaring various New Deal measures unconstitutional. The public, deeply concerned about economic security, strongly supported the President; liberal intellectuals castigated the Court as "nine old men."

Roosevelt overreacted by trying to pack the Court with additional appointees; he lost the battle but won the war by appointments over the years that made the Court a rubber-stamp for his political philosophies.

The pendulum has long since swung; political moods and concerns have drastically changed; and the "nine old men," preponderantly wedded to outmoded ultra liberal ideas, have rendered a long series of unpopular decisions in the fields of crime, social legislation and federal-state relationships.

The totally unrealistic decision on residence requirements reinforces federal control at a time when public sentiment is growing against concentration of power at the national level.

It establishes a new, spurious "right to travel" — on someone else's money, at a time when taxpayers are in revolt against costs of government at every level.

Most importantly, at a time when local, state and federal officials are wringing their hands over a major political concern of the times — the plight of the cities — the decision will contribute to the seriousness of that problem.

No amount of money expenditures or social experiments will save the cities from growing decay as long as the middle class continues its exodus to the suburbs. Encouraging welfare recipients from rural areas to travel in still greater numbers to the despair-ridden urban centers will only accelerate that trend.

Like many decisions of the recent past, the latest Court "landmark" appears to have been reached in a political vacuum. But politics, like nature, abhors a vacuum.

President Nixon's most far reaching accomplishment may be in bringing the Supreme Court back in touch with the times through his appointments in the years ahead.

People Have To Eat

An announcement of immense importance to all Americans was made by U.S. Senator George Murphy in Fresno last week. The California Senator revealed that he will shortly introduce a bill in Congress, with farm support, to establish collective bargaining ground rules in agriculture.

Because the measure would prohibit strikes and boycotts which would result in loss, spoilage or deterioration of an agricultural commodity, the Murphy proposal was immediately opposed by union spokesmen.

Writing in the Los Angeles Times, Labor Writer Harry Bernstein reported the unions' reasoning as follows:

"If farmers are to be protected against severe economic impact of a strike at critical times, why should the law not prohibit strikes against any employer who would be severely hurt by a strike?"

The answer is two-fold. One reason is that no manufacturer, no retail or service business can be hurt by a strike to the same degree that a farmer can be. Crops can't be interrupted in production and put back on the assembly line at a later date. In a period of days, a farmer could lose, through work interruption, his entire year's production and his farm as well.

The second reason is even more important. Through the exercise of monopoly power, labor unions have tied up the nation's shipping, its railroad transportation, shut down steel plants and closed schools. Still, the public manages to survive.

People can get along, if they have to, for extended periods of time without travelling, without new automobiles, refrigerators, or wooden widgets; even without education for their children.

But all of us have to eat — every day of the year.

School Cost Doubles!

During the past 10 years California has doubled its expenditures for schools while enrollments have increased 40.8 per cent and the cost of living 12.5 per cent.

Per pupil costs are going up much faster in the past few years than in prior years and the pressure of rising education costs is the major factor in increased taxes for state and local government.

These are conclusions from "Educational Finance in California, 1959-60 to 1969-70" a Cal-Tax Research Bulletin just released.

Schools spend 52.2 per cent of the total of property taxes in the state, rising from $948 million in 1959-60 to $2,449 million in 1968-69.

While property tax levies were increasing 100 per cent for schools, the state increased its aid to schools 60 per cent and the federal government by 300 per cent. Property taxes remain the largest single source of revenue for California schools.

Thus all efforts at property tax relief or tax reform ultimately hinge upon resolution of the school finance needs, the bulletin concludes.

Of the total state budget as proposed for 1969-70, 44.5 per cent will be for education purposes as compared to 46 per cent in 1959-60. In the meantime federal assistance has increased markedly.

The report includes tables which show the source of all funds for schools, increases in expenditures for all services of state government. Most of the tables end with the last year when total costs are known, 1967-68, but for projection of the state budget they include this year's estimated costs and proposed expenditures for 1969-70.

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

The issue of law and order, which played so large a part in the presidential campaign, has become increasingly meaningful to American in recent weeks as strife has worsened on the campus and the prospect of another "long, hot summer" worries many citizens.

Perhaps the most shocking development of recent years was the appearance on the Cornell University campus, in Ithaca, N.Y. of a band of black militants who armed themselves with shotguns and rifles and required the university president, under duress, to make a number of humiliating concessions. The picture of campus hoodlums, carrying weapons, unquestionably shocked even many liberals who in the past have dreamed up all manner of excuses for campus protesters. Even the New York Times compared the armed band to Nazi stormtroopers who attacked German universities in Hitler's rise to power.

It may be that the sickening developments at Cornell provided a shock of recognition to many liberals who have steadfastly refused to see any evil or hear any evil in campus disorders. Indeed the latest round of riotous events already has produced some healthy reactions. The New York State Senate unanimously approved a bill to impose a year's jail sentence and a $1,000 fine on anyone who prevents college classes from being held. Other state legislatures are considering similar bills, aimed at thwarting revolutionary organizations such as the Students For a Democratic Society.

In Congress, U.S. Rep. Albert W. Watson (R-SC) has called on the House Committee on Internal Security to investigate the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC), which is trying to foment strife in high schools as well as colleges.

Another valuable step has been taken by Sen. Robert C. Byrd (D-West Va.) who has introduced legislation that would make it a federal crime to disrupt any federally assisted college or university.

Tough state and federal legislation along this line most probably is the best way to deal with the organized minority of radical disruptionists who are trying to paralyze American education and root out all patriotic values and programs.

Other types of action are needed, however, to deal with career agitators who organize virtual wars against towns and cities, who harass communities for months over some absurd non-issue. No reason exists why peaceful, progressive communities should have to submit to weeks and months of marching in the streets and implied threats of riot. One resourceful agitator can cost a city hundreds of thousands of dollars in extra police payments and can deprive a community of needed revenue. Hospital and other vital community institutions can be impeded in their work of mercy and service by agitators who fly in each weekend for marches and demonstrations that pose the danger of riot and arson on a large scale.

Law-abiding communities should have protection against demagogic individuals whose preaching of "non-violence" is simply a cover for engendering acts of violence. One system that states and the federal government may be forced to adopt, to protect Americans against harassment and danger, is the system of preventive detention such as Britain's Defense of the Realm Act has embodied for many years.

Indeed President Nixon, in a speech on crime in the District of Columbia, already has advanced the idea of pre-trial detention of dangerous hard-core criminals whose freedom "presents a clear danger to the community." Senator Byrd of West Virginia is another figure in government who has recommended a plan to allow judges to hold persons accused of threatening "serious bodily harm."

It is only reasonable to suppose that communities must have some way to protect themselves against protracted demonstrations that contain the threat of havoc and bloodshed. Detention of persons who might be dangerous to communities is an idea that certainly is going to receive much consideration in the months ahead.

The American people simply cannot tolerate more strife and threats of strife, whether on college campuses or in the streets. The time has come to deal with maximum firmness in crushing those who attempt to wage war from within. The spirit and deeds of sedition and anarchy must be stamped out if this country is to survive.

Warn your children against playing in the street.
